REGENTATLANTIC CAPITAL DONATES 32,562.50 CALORIES TO FOOD PANTRY

MORRISTOWN, New Jersey (April 13) – The 38 employees of RegentAtlantic Capital, LLC recently launched a food drive for the InterFaith Food Pantry of Morristown, and in one day the employees raised donations representing 32,562.50 calories. David Bugen, Principal and Wealth Manager said, “using the guide of a 1200 calories a day we’re delivering to the InterFaith Food Pantry enough food to serve a family of 4 for almost 7 days.”

RegentAtlantic Capital, a fee-only wealth management firm, is located in Morristown, NJ and serves some 900 client families and has more than $1.2 billion of assets under management.

Margaret Prentice, Chief Marketing Officer, said “this is not the first time we’ve looked for ways to help people in our community. We’ve volunteered at Habitat for Humanity Newark where we built a deck on a house and landscaped and planted grass. And we got really dirty!” RegentAtlantic Capital has also volunteered with the Morris Land Conservancy where the employees planted some 300 white cedars in the Great Swamp Wildlife Refuge.
