REGENTATLANTIC CAPITAL NAMES NEWTON AND PROKOP PARTNERS

Morristown, New Jersey (January 7) – Christopher J. Cordaro, Chief Executive Officer, Principal and Wealth Manager at RegentAtlantic Capital, announced that Jane Newton and John Prokop have been named partners in the Morristown wealth management firm.

“Both Jane and John exemplify what we seek as an owner at RegentAtlantic,” said Cordaro. “In a very difficult time in the financial markets, Jane and John have done an outstanding job in serving their clients,” he said. While Newton and Prokop work with clients who have a variety of planning needs, Newton has a focus in working with women on Wall Street and Prokop with widows and seniors.

Newton and Prokop are CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNERS™. Newton joined RegentAtlantic in 2005. A resident of Summit, she is a graduate of Tufts University, where she received her B.A. in Economics, and from New York University’s Stern School of Business where she received an M.B.A. Newton is a member of the Financial Women’s Association of New York and New Jersey.

Prokop is also a CPA and a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA). He graduated from Georgetown University with a B.S. in Business Administration and an M.B.A. from New York University’s Stern School of Business. He lives in Florham Park where he serves on the Florham Park Capital Improvement Committee. Prokop is also treasurer of the Georgetown University Alumni Club of Northern New Jersey.

RegentAtlantic Capital helps high net worth clients develop goals and manage investments to achieve financial objectives, such as retirement, college funding, and charitable giving. At year end 2008, RegentAtlantic Capital had approximately $1.2 Billion of assets under management.
